

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our Board of Directors is composed of influential personalities from all three countries of NAFTA, who share the same wish to develop economic and political links between the three partners by promoting a pragmatic North American agenda.

CHAIRMAN

M. Stephen Blank, Ph.D.

Director, Center for International Business Development, Lubin School of Business, Pace University (New York)

Stephen Blank has enjoyed careers in business and in academic world. Blank is Professor in the international business program at Pace University's Lubin School of Business in New York City and Director of the PanAmerican Partnership for Business Education, an alliance of North American business schools.

He has been a visiting professor at many other universities, including the Tuck School, the University of Toronto, Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs and HEC-Montreal. Stephen Blank has written and co-authored 11 books and many articles.

Blank is currently the President of the Mid-Atlantic Committee of New York City and a member of the Executive of the North-American Committee and the Board of Directors of the Alliance for Higher Education in North America. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. In 2002, Stephen Blank was awarded l'Ordre National du Quebec.

DIRECTORS

Françoise Faverjon-Fortin

Vice-President, Infrastructure and Environment, Export Development Canada (EDC)

Ms. Françoise Faverjon-Fortin joined Export Development Canada in 1990. Ms. Françoise Faverjon-Fortin is Vice-President, Infrastructure and Environment for EDC.

Previously, Ms. Faverjon-Fortin worked at the Conference Board of Canada and the World Trade Center Association in New York. She is Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors for the Dandurand Chair of Strategic and Diplomatic Studies (Université du Québec à Montréal) and sits on the International Relations Council of Montreal. She holds an MBA in International Finance from the State University of New York. EDC provides trade finance and risk management services to Canadian exporters and investors in up to 200 markets. Founded in 1944, EDC is a Crown Corporation that operates as a commercial financial institution.

Dr. Robert A. Pastor, Ph.D.

Vice-president of International Affairs
 Profesor and Director of the Center for North American Studies,
 American University

Robert A. Pastor is Vice-president of International Affairs as well as Professor and Director of the Center for North American Studies at American University in Washington, DC. Dr. Pastor was Fellow and Founding Director of the Carter Center's Latin American and Caribbean Program (1985-98) and was National Security Advisor for Latin American Affairs (1977-81). He received a Ph.D. from Harvard University and is author of 14 books, including Toward a North American Community: Lessons from the Old World for the New. Dr. Pastor chairs the North American Forum on Integration.

Dr. David Felsen, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor and Program Coordinator at the Center for International Studies,
 Alliant International University, San Diego

Dr. David Felsen is Assistant Professor and Program Coordinator at the Center for International Studies at Alliant International University in San Diego. He has a Doctorate in Politics from Oxford University in England, and Masters and Bachelors degrees from McGill University in Montreal, Canada. Prior to joining Alliant, Dr. Felsen was an assistant professor of public policy at the Graduate School of Public Administration and Public Policy at Monterrey Institute of Technology, State of Mexico Campus (2005-2006), and a visiting assistant professor at Temple University in Philadelphia (2002-2004). Dr. Felsen has written articles on European politics, Latin American politics, and transnational and development issues. He is currently writing a book on Mexican politics.

Lic. Julieta Yañez Vega

Director of the International Studies Program and the Political Science and Public Administration Program at the Universidad de Monterrey

Julieta Yañez Vega is the International Studies and Political Science Program Director at the Universidad de Monterrey. She has been working as Faculty since 1997 teaching courses such as World Politics, Diplomacy, Model United Nations and International Negotiations. She has a Masters Degree in Humanities and a Diploma in International Relations. She is often invited to comment on international and Mexican politics in radio programs.

Mme Christine Fréchette

President and founder of NAFI

Christine Fréchette has founded and directed NAFI since April 2002. With a Master's degree in International Relations, she has previously worked for the National Assembly, particularly as a counsellor for the Parliamentary Confederation of the Americas (COPA), which has established a network of legislative assemblies of the Americas. Later, she coordinated the creation of an inter-American network on linguistic diversity.

She is a member of the Board of the International Studies Centre of the Université de Montréal (CERIUM) and of the government Council on the Status of Women (CSF).

SECRETARYMme Vicky Trépanier

Lawyer, Brouillette Charpentier Fortin GP

Vicky Trépanier is Secretary and member of the Board of Directors of the North American Forum on Integration. She studied law, and has been practicing business law with the firm Brouillette Charpentier Fortin s.e.n.c. since December 2001. She also holds a B.A. majoring in translation.

Ms. Trépanier was member of the Commission d'étude sur les services de santé et les services sociaux (the Clair Commission). She is currently member of the Board of Directors of the Commission des normes du travail and Vice-President of the Fonds étudiant solidarité travail du Québec. She also served as a member of the Comité de travail sur l'intégration des jeunes à la fonction publique québécoise.

© COPYRIGHT THE NORTH AMERICAN FORUM ON INTEGRATION ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

FINA - NAFI.ORG

MAILTO:INFO@FINA-NAFI.ORG